

Quiz: Meal Counts

1. Point of service meal counts are meal counts taken when you can assure that participants have been served a reimbursable meal or snack. True or False
2. Meals can be counted as the participants are entering the room where meals are served. True or False
3. Meals can be counted after the meal service ends, when participants are no longer sitting at the table to eat. True or False
4. Scenario: A center has selected breakfast, lunch, and afternoon snack as their approved meal types in their Cyber-Linked Interactive Child Nutrition System (CLiCS) site application. They also serve morning snack. Can they include morning snack counts in their monthly claim for reimbursement? Yes or No
5. How many snacks and meals are allowed to be claimed per participant in a child or adult care center? (Choose all that apply).
 - A. Three meals and one snack.
 - B. Two snacks and one meal.
 - C. Two meals and one snack.
 - D. Two meals and two snacks.
6. When a staff member counts the number of participants who received a reimbursable meal and records the total as the meal count, this is called “meal count by head count.” True or False
7. The daily attendance total can be used as the meal count to be claimed for reimbursement. True or False
8. Meal counts and daily attendance can be recorded on the same form. True or false
9. Scenario: A participant is feeling sick and leaves the center right before the meal service, and a reimbursable meal was already placed at the table for that participant. Can the center claim that meal? Yes or No
10. It is necessary to record first AND last names on the Meal Count and Attendance forms. True or False

True	10	B & C	5
No	9	No	4
True	8	False	3
False	7	False	2
True	6	True	1